Offers From R16, 900, 000 Imagine waking each morning to vistas of the incredible award winning garden and the distant hills beyond... where magnificent trees punctuate the sky. Where your children's playful calls echo in the silence! Where your early morning stroll is a feast of bird call and trees whispering in the gentle breeze. This Herbert Baker designed home has been beautifully restored by the owner in consultation with celebrated architect Angela Whitaker, to provide an utterly contemporary lifestyle within the embracing stone walls of yesteryear. Beautiful timber paneling, a curved staircase, leadlight windows introduce the history - and as one moves through the house, the stylish redesign introduces contemporary, classic comforts in every room. There are four elegant receptions with fireplaces; a gourmet kitchen, featuring a honed granite island and brimming with mod cons. A mere step away is the generous family room, filled with cosy couches and warmed by an integrated...
