

Magnificent Whale Rock home with endless sea views

 5  6.5  3

In a small enclave of Whale Rock, and set against the dramatic cliff face, is a gorgeous home which exudes a sense of "coming home". Designed with thoughtful consideration for a large family that loves entertaining, this home is at once both homely and contemporary. The show stopping views extending from the Tsitsikamma mountains to the Robberg Peninsula are truly captivating. Three en-suite bedrooms are on the ground floor with a coffee station for that early morning coffee while you enjoy the tranquility of watching the sun rise over the ocean. The master bedroom has everything you could want from the spectacular view and large walk in dressing room to the luxurious bathroom. Also located on this level is a room which can be utilized either as a gym or a study. For convenience the double garage has direct access into the house on this level. A fourth bedroom is located on the upper floor with views of the sea and a small patio looking onto the cliff face where you can watch the...
