

Stunning land with seafront and breathtaking sea views just 15-20km away
from Port Elizabeth.

Investing in a piece of land with breathtaking sea views is something that nobody can resist. This stunning property located alongside the peaceful village of Seaview, just 15-20km away from Port Elizabeth, offers you exactly that and much more. With 430m of seafront covering 4.5ha of the total 70 ha, this property is waiting for someone like you to take it to the next level. Electricity and water are readily available, along with two boreholes and an underground dam with a capacity of about half a million liters. The property is currently zoned for agriculture and has been successfully used for growing mushrooms and chilies, as well as keeping livestock. Additionally, the property used to have a 9-hole golf course, adding to its unique appeal. Don't miss out on the chance to own this beautiful piece of land. Contact the agent right away to arrange a viewing and submit your offer. We are open to considering all offers, so call us now to secure this once-in-a-lifetime...
