

Nature, Tranquility, Water and Privacy

4 3 2

Nestled among the trees, this serene and private home offers the best of both worlds - the peace of the bushveld and the ever-changing beauty of the Vaal River. Whether you're seeking a permanent residence, a holiday hideaway, or a weekend escape, this well-designed home blends comfort, nature, and lifestyle in perfect harmony. Situated in an elevated position, the home boasts breathtaking views over the river and the surrounding bush. Multiple entertainment areas, each with its own unique charm, take full advantage of the setting. At the river edge a private lounging area under the trees for long lazy days meets you at the end of a meandering walkway from the home. A shared jetty allows for easy access to the river, with space for a boat and jetskis, ready for a cruise down or upriver to enjoy a few of the waterfront restaurants. A large fire-pit is situated on the edge of a raised area in the garden with unbeatable river views. A downstairs lounge/bar area onto the pool deck...
