

TOP TIER PRIME PROPERTY - THE LAST UNDEVELOPED PROPERTY IN SOMERSET WEST

Sweeping ocean vistas are framed, captured and capitalised at Topcliffe, as are the verdant stretches of forest and undulating valleys beyond. It is no secret that more locals and foreigners are calling Somerset West their home. The Helderberg regions' unmatched lifestyle, picturesque surroundings and easy access to the wine lands, shopping, beaches and the airport make this home to some of the worlds most exquisite real estate. Reapply for building rights for partial residential development on this land which also has an abundance of natural mountain spring water and three boreholes already established. "A model of freedom of expression, a rebellion against all that is bland and unimaginative, it is the only way to leave the world behind and arrive at a place you should have been all along".
