Umhlanga Ridge at a glance

Umhlanga & Umhlanga Rocks Umhlanga, Umhlanga Rocks and Umdloti are often collectively known as Kwa Zulu Natal's Sugar Coast, harking back to their sugar cane producing past. The area, also one of the country's most popular holiday destinations, is surging forward to becoming the new economic hub of Durban. The resort and residential town north of Durban and just south of King Shaka International Airport is renowned for its warm weather, golden beaches and a myriad of adventure and entertainment opportunities. Accommodation options range from one-bed apartments through to palatial beach-side mansions and owners range from permanent residents to holiday home owners who benefit from the bustling rental market in this popular area. Since the construction of King Shaka...
